

Already Doing It

Structured university conversations for sixth form students

Already Doing It helps schools extend post-18 guidance through short, structured 1-to-1 conversations with current university students and recent graduates.

Why schools use our service

- Students want real insight beyond prospectuses and talks
- Schools must show robust post-18 guidance without increasing workload
- Personalised support is difficult to deliver at scale

What we provide

- Short, structured 30-minute online conversations
- Delivered by vett ed university mentors
- Designed to support reflection, clarity, and confident decisions

Learn more / Request a short introductory call

www.alreadydoingit.co.uk

How it works for schools

Safeguarding & oversight

All mentors are vetted and sessions take place within a structured, monitored platform aligned with school safeguarding expectations.

View safeguarding policy

Indicative pricing

- Schools typically purchase session blocks for targeted student groups or year groups.
- School packages are priced below individual bookings, with volume-based discounts available.
- Most schools engage at £22–£25 per 30-minute session, depending on scale.

Successfully piloted with positive feedback from students.

Learn more / Request a short introductory call

www.alreadydoingit.co.uk